When a pike was too hungry

DORCHESTER Angling Club's Jeffery Trophy match was fished at Wool. Thirty-six members competed.

A hungry pike came to grief after attacking the fish within the keep net of Stuart Smith, and was promptly hauled on to the bank.

A dace of 0-9-3

caught by Roy Sibley, and a grayling of 1-6-8 by E. S. Sherwood, took the lead in their respective shields.

Junior member Andrew Jackson maintained a clear lead in the points league.

Result: 1. Derek Pride (5-15-6); 2. David Moxom (5-10-6); 3. Mike Parks (4-9-4).

Points League: 1. Andrew Jackson (64); 2. Derek Pride (54); 3. David Moxom (50).

Specimen fish: Roach — John Smith (1-36); dace — Roy Sibley (0-9-3); perch — Fred Murray (1-1-4); Tony Ford (1-1-4); grayling — Eric Sherwood (1-6-8); junior roach — Andrew Jackson (0-9-6).
